

Department of Telugu

Best Practices

1. Title: - Helping Hands

2. Objective of practice :-

To render monetary help to the needy among the students and also outside. To inculcate service motto in the students. To orient the munificent staff members and others to help the needy.

3. The context:-

There are many people who need money for dire needs caused accidentally. Some people suffer poverty and survive only through help. We need not be rich to help the needy. All we need is helping nature. Students need to learn this for better living.

4. The Practice:-

The lecture in charge of the department donates to orphanage regularly. Also she encourages the students to help the needy. She asks the students to collect money for donations in orphanages. When an occasion demands she gives a call to students and they collect and donate it to the needy. At times she pays fees to the needy students and encourages others also to do the same.

5. Evidence of success:-

Other staff members are also coming forward to work in the same line and money was this collected and distributed to the individuals and orphanages.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources required:-

There's always a lot to do and money is always needed.
