Report on Guest Lecture on "Reform movement in Andhra"

Department of History organized Guest Lecture on "Reform movement in Andhra" on 17.12.2024 the resource person K.L.Prabhavathi, lecturer in History, GDC, Pamarru. Staff from Arts department and 30 members of students participated in the programme. Sri K.L. Prabhavathi gave talk on Reform movement in Andhra its background, the prominent reformers from Andhra like Kandukuri Veeresalingam, Raghupathi Venkata Ratnam naidu, Gurajada Apparao, Komarraju Venkata lakshminarao and others who dedicated their lives for the upliftment of women and social equality.

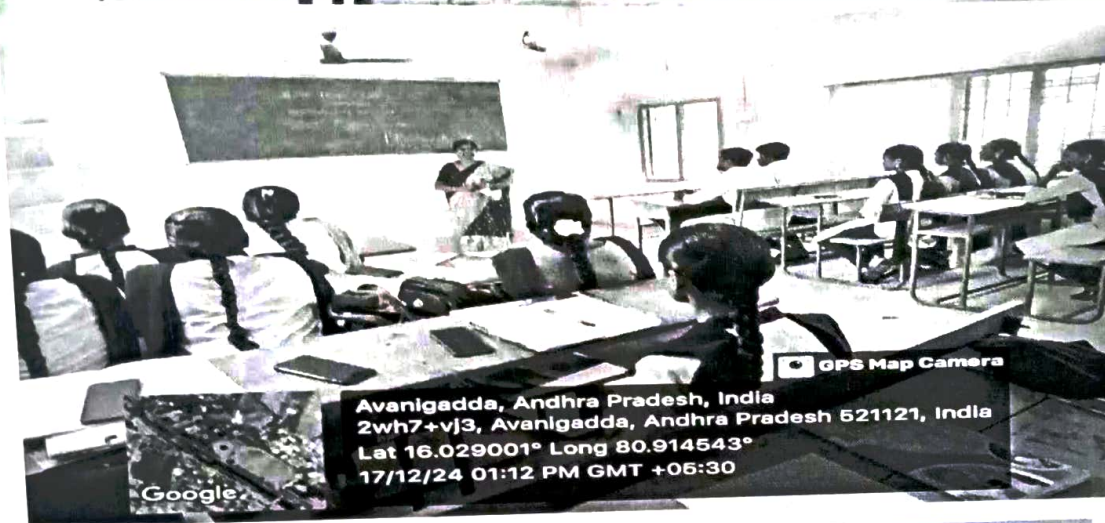

The growth of women's movement, exclusive women's organisations and the intense struggle against all social evils confronting women folk is a significant development in period. The aspiration of Veeresalingam era viz., emancipation of women from bondage was more than justified in early 20th century. The contributory role of reform endeavours in the post-Veeresalingam period is noteworthy on a few accounts. The consistent efforts of reformers and various associations like caste and women's associations were responsible for the spread of reform ideas and rational thinking in society.

And various organizations, newspapers established by the reformers were discussed with students and they got benefited through the talk and enlightened. Students and staff made the programme grand success.
